In case of inclement weather, we follow the lead of L.I.S.D. and send registered students an email, as well as post on our Ballet Conservatory FACEBOOK PAGE and INSTAGRAM PAGE. FOLLOW US for the latest studio news and photos. Adults who purchase an Adult Card will not be notified as you are not entered in our system so please check our social media pages if there is questionable weather. As with any other closure or absence, students are allowed to makeup missed classes within 2 months of the absence, but must be made up during the semester of the absence. Makeups may not carry over to a new semester with the exception of Christmas break which must be made up in January.

COMMUNICATION:
We communicate through our "Five Pointes" email every Monday with studio news and important information. Please make sure we have correct emails in Jackrabbit and that you receive an email each Monday. Let us know if you wish to add dancer email or additional emails to the "Five Pointes." It is always nice if the dancer also receives the email so they are aware of Theme Weeks, auditions, etc.

ADVANCED PROGRAM SCHEDULE

ADVANCED STUDENTS MAY ALSO TAKE ADDITIONAL CLASSES FROM OUR OPEN SCHEDULE ON PAGE 1.

This program is by audition or invitation. It was developed to meet the needs of the serious student who may possibly choose a career in the field of dance or pursue a college dance degree. Students who desire only 2 or 3 classes a week should take classes in our excellent Open Program. Students in any Advanced Class must abide by an additional set of policies. A parent and dancer are to schedule a meeting with the director if this will be your first year in an Advanced class (with the exception of Advanced Tap) to review these policies. Advanced adults may enroll in these classes with permission of an instructor.

Training in classical ballet is vital to your success, even for those who are more interested in jazz, contemporary or other genres. Dancers are also encouraged to stretch, condition and cross-train to avoid injury. We do have a Physical Therapist available to work with our dancers at the studio for a discounted rate. Please inquire if needed.
